OCCUPY LOS ANGELES

[LOS ANGELES] The organizers of Occupy The Rose Parade have divided their occupying of the 123rd Rose Parade into several phases. The group said the purpose of "Phase 1" is to bring attention to the "Occupy Economic & Social Justice Summit" at Pasadena City Hall from 3 to 6 pm today. And "Phase 2" will occur on January 2 when "activists" will gather "between the Norton Simon Museum and Pasadena City Hall...to engage in outreach/signage displays & [literature] distribution...with a particular focus on large banners." And then "Phase 3" from 7 - 9 am at Singer Park to form a "Human Float."

Pasadena City Hall is at 100 N. Garfield Avenue., Pasadena, CA 91109. Singer Park is located at 250 W. California Blvd., Pasadena, CA 91109. Mitch, Reporter, Photographer, Occupy LA, OLA Media, Occupy Los Angeles News

[LOS ANGELES] National and local elections are approaching. Will you occupy them? Below is an election within Los Angeles County to be held on January 17th.

Los Angeles City Council District 15

Mr. Joe Buscaino vs Mr. Warren Furutani.

You may find out information about both politicians at their websites: joebuscaino.com and warrenfurutani.com.
